La Antigua Galería de Arte is proud to share with you the latest arrivals by Puerto Rican sculptor Nuni Canals.

This artist has lived in her “adopted home,” Guatemala, for more than 20 years. She began to explore sculpture out of curiosity and considers herself self-taught in the discipline though she has undertaken formal studies. She sees herself as an artesian with a passion for building, experimenting and working with materials of all types in the three-dimensional form. Her themes of choice center around her experience as a woman; her role as a mother and as global ambassador for peaceful relations. Her art is a tool for searching, not only for herself but establishing links with family, society and the spaces in which we all live.

If you have questions or any interest in her works please email us at: laantiguagaleria@gmail.com or call: (502) 7832-5911.
Also, we are happy to announce our Upcoming Exhibit “Veredas del Altiplano” by Guatemalan artist Sergio Alvarado at La Antigua Galería de Arte.

We look forward to sharing with you his latest works. The artist will attend the opening.
